HEALING CIRCLE RUN/WALK July 11-17, 2015

The 2015 Healing Circle Run/Walk continues to be a prayer for healing. During the 2001 Healing Journey Run, participants were told of a teaching on healing - "for a nation to heal, it must begin with the individual. As a person heals, then that person can help heal his/her family. As a family begins to heal, they can help heal their community. As communities heal, they can help the nation heal." As individuals, families, communities, and nations heal, they can help Akii (the earth) and our plant and animal relatives to heal. The 2015 Healing Circle Run/Walk is an opportunity for people to come together to pray for healing for themselves, their families, their communities, their nation, Akii, and all our relatives.

The 2015 Healing Circle Run/Walk will occur from July 11-17, 2015. The run/walk will connect eight Ojibwe reservations in northern Wisconsin, Michigan, and Minnesota (see below map) starting at the Lac Courte Oreilles Reservation and ending at Lac du Flambeau on July 11 (Day 1), then ending at Mole Lake on July 12 (Day 2), at Lac Vieux Desert on July 13 (Day 3), at Bad River/Red Cliff on July 14 (Day 4), at Fond du Lac/Black Bear Casino on July 15 (Day 5), at St. Croix on July 16 (Day 6), and at Lac Courte Oreilles on July 17 (Day 7).

For more information or if you are interested in participating as a core runner, or having a group of runners from your reservation participate, please contact Jenny Krueger-Bear, Sue Lemieux, or Neil Kmiecik at GLIFWC at (715) 682-6619. All participants must assume personal liability, as well as responsibility for their own transportation and expenses.

THE ROBIN (Opichi)

A traditional Anishinabeg Teaching about the love of a father and his son.

“Maoomin wanted his son, Opichi, to become a great warrior, he made him work hard to be the best at everything” “Opichi worked hard to please his father. In his heart Opichi knew that he would never be the great warrior his father wanted him to be....In the spring of the sixth year, Manoomin took Opichi for the sixth time to seek Ision....Manoomin called out but there was no reply.. As he walked home he wept for his lost son.”

This story was told by Dee Bainbridge, who was the last first language speaker of the Red Cliff Band of Lake Superior Chippewa, and illustrated by Rita Vanderventer also a Member of the Red Cliff Band of Lake Superior Chippewa. The Text was edited by Eva Petoskey a member of the Grand Traverse Band of Ottawa & Chippewa
