

Summer 2016 Institutes

An initiative to engage community members and teachers in ecological restoration and water stewardship rooted in Indigenous knowledge. For community members, teachers, students, informal educators, resource specialists, scientists, and professors

Earth Partnership IAS seeks to:

- Bring people together interested in linking environmental and health concerns to academic achievement in science, math, social studies, language and the arts.
- Integrate Indigenous perspectives and experience with Earth Partnership's ecological restoration education programs in diverse watersheds and ecosystems.
- Partner with communities to broaden participation and generate enthusiasm among Native youth to become the next generation of environmental stewards.
- Address the needs of K-20 educators for culturally accurate and authentic resources across the curriculum.
