

“Waabooz” Movie

Seeking background Extras for Pow-Wow reenactment

Waabooz is a short film about a young Native comic book artist who is bullied and finds inner strength with the help of his grandfather to overcome his fears. The film will use contemporary storytelling in the form of comic book illustrations during a portion of the film, bringing together traditional live action and new media animation.

When: Date has changed to - Saturday August 15th

Where : Red Cliff Band of Lake Superior Chippewa Reservation

Who: Anyone interested in being in the film - dancers or patrons, color guards and drums. No experience necessary.

How: Patrons, Pow wow attendees, Contact: Kaija at 218.290.6448 or email waaboozcasting@gmail.com

Dancers, Color Guards and Drums, Contact: Gretchen Morris at southwindwomen@yahoo.com or 715-779-0134

Why: Bullying is a national epidemic - not only on reservations but worldwide. “Waabooz” is universal in it's appeal and will reach reservations as well schools and communities across the country. The end result will be a short film and a companion Native American comic book - put in the hands of teachers, parents and children, to educate and reach out to bullies and their victims.

Announcing: Saginaw Grant - Cast as Grandfather! Some of his film and television credits include: “The Lone Ranger,” “The World’s Fastest Indian,” “The League,” “Community,” “Breaking Bad,” “American Horror Story,” “Skinwalkers,”